Department of State
Room 7311

Washington, D.C.

Dear Paul,

Thank you for agreeing to address the Third World Intelligence Seminar which is being sponsored by the DCI's Intelligence Producers Council this fall. It will convene at the Department of State in two sessions; 21-22 October and 18-19 November. Room 1107 has been reserved for this purpose.

Your 30 minute presentation on intelligence support for forward policy planning is a welcome addition to our agenda for the second session, and is scheduled to begin at 1030 on the morning of 18 November. General Paul X. Kelley, Assistant Commandant and Chief of Staff of the Marine Corps, will provide 30 minutes on his perceptions of the adequacy of intelligence support for military planning that same morning, beginning at 1115.

I view the seminar as a forum for senior and analyst-level members of the Intelligence Community, executives from consumer agencies, and distinguished academicians to interact on questions dealing with information needs on the Third World. Your participation will enhance our understanding of intelligence production needed for policy planning support and rounds out the agenda very well.

If you have any questions about the seminar, please call me or the seminar coordinator, [redacted] Intelligence Producers Council Staff, [redacted]

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Henry S. Rowen
Chairman
